

Date of birth	02 04 1963
Present place of employment	Martynas Mazvydas National Library of Lithuania Head of Rare Book and Manuscript Department
Field of specialization	Archives
Degrees, years when attained	1986, Faculty of history at Vilnius University
Professional societies	Lithuanian Librarian's Association; Secretary of the Lithuanian National Committee for UNESCO program "Memory of the World".

Description of duties and work experience

My functions of the Head of department include staff education, distribution of work, devising regulations concerning manuscript processing and preservation, arranging exhibitions of historical documents and editing publications (more than 20 articles about collections and personal archives, organizations, churches institutions, "Index of the National Library Manuscript Department Collection" (1997), "Privileges of the Grand Dukes of Lithuania. Exhibition catalogue" (1998).

I regularly deliver reports at the international conferences and lectures to the students and Lithuanian librarians on the issues of organizing of manuscript and old book collection, management of department, dissemination of cultural heritage.

Also I was a coordinator of joint project with Osnabrück University (Germany) "Accounting and Assimilation of Old Books from Former Koenigsberg Libraries in the Libraries of Middle and Eastern Europe" and a member of working group preparing application for EU Structural Funds' support for the project "Creation of Integrated Virtual Library Information System".